Garage Sale

The weather was good, the crowds came out and the stallholders were happy. A successful morning for all. Our stall made $350 for Pathways Client subsidy fund. Thanks to those who helped and for all the goods that have been given over several months.

Did you know that today, Sunday 25 July 2010 is New Zealand's "Media Prayer Day"?

Hundreds of churches throughout the country will be taking a few minutes of their Sunday service to pray for the spread of the Jesus-message through New Zealand's mass media.

That's through television, radio, film, electronic media and print. CBA (Christian Broadcasting Assn) encourage you to pray for the following groups of people:

1. Christians who work within NZ's mainstream media - television, radio, print, film, advertising, marketing and electronic media (such as website development). Pray for those with profile and those behind the scenes.
2. Christians producing programming specifically for mainstream media.
3. People of influence within NZ's mass media - presenters, writers and editors, directors, producers and media managers.
4. Media gatekeepers - those who make decisions which give voice to a Christian perspective or prevent an authentic Christian voice from being heard.
5. Christian media - those who work within Christian television, radio, film, electronic media and print.

Parish Dinner

A reminder that the Parish dinner is on 7 August and that it would be helpful if people could let Christine, Christina, Anne or myself know if they are coming or in the case of All Hallows please could they let Pat Wigglesworth know - for catering purposes. Plus if anyone could make a dish that would be appreciated - again to see one of those people.

Parish Council

This year, with Local Shared Ministry, there are no "appointments" to Parish Council so all positions will be by election at the Parish AGM. Nominations received to date are:

Chairman - Deon Papenfus

Secretary - Elizabeth Davies

Treasurer - Ian Magee

Parish Stewards (2) - Don Wigglesworth & Win Davies

Member from All Hallows - Cedric Hayes

Member from Trinity - Hannes Beukes

Administration member of Ministry Support Team - Max Thomson

Retired presbyters and chairs of Women's Fellowships are ex-officio members along with the enabler (Rev Andrew Gamman).

Any further nominations (with the nominee's approval) should be given to Max or Dawn before the AGM on Sunday 1 August.

Mystery Dinner and Play at Takapuna

The Takapuna Methodist Church is holding a special dinner and entertainment evening on Friday 30th July. The title of the event is "Death by Co-operation". This is a murder mystery play in which everyone participates in a game and discussion over a congenial full 2 course meal. This is very much about ecumenical church life, and we would like to invite you both to come and enjoy the evening with us.

Please also pass this invitation on to any of your friends that might be interested. They will be most welcome.

This is a highly interactive, entertaining social event, originally devised for the Forum of the Uniting Congregations in 2007. Star guest & principal actor is the author Dave Mullan. Starting at 6pm it should be finished by about 9:30pm.

Tickets cost $25 and are available from Brian Ellis or the Takapuna Church office. Please phone 489-4590. A full meal is included. Telephone booking will need to be paid for by noon on 29th July.

Flyers on church notice board.
